

NO OUTBREAK NOW FEARED.

Order Reigns in Manila But the Rebel Sharpshooters Wound Six Men.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
MANILA, Feb. 25.—2:35 p. m.—The military police have raided several suspected houses in the various districts, capturing small bodies of twenty or thirty persons in each place.
This and the 7 o'clock ordinance is effectually dispelling the fears of a threatened outbreak of the natives,
who did not dare, singly or collectively,
to appear on the streets after dark.
The feeling in the city has decidedly improved.
The Chinese are still timorous. Hundreds of applicants for cedulus besteathe registrars, the natives apparently being under the impression that their possession insures them from interference and the ignominy of being searched for arms on the streets.
It is generally believed that the disastrous attempts to attack the city and destroy property, the Filipinos themselves being the worst sufferers, will prevent their recurrence, but every precaution is being taken to deal with an emergency if it arises.
The insurance agents refuse to entertain any claims on account of Wednesday's fires. They intimate that General Otis, having guaranteed the safety of life and property of the inhabitants, is responsible for these claims.
Outside the city the sharpshooters
about Calocan are very annoying.
Six men belonging to the brigade commanded by General Harrison Gray Otis have been wounded since midnight. All is quiet, however.

CASE FOR GRAND JURY ACTION. Will Signed in a Peculiar Manner.

There was a sensation in Judge Hall's department of the Superior Court this morning when an attempt was made to probate the will of the late Mary E. Hawley.
William Kane and Mrs. Lizette Kane, whose names are signed as witnesses to the testament, declared that they had signed the document three weeks after the death of the testatrix. The will was therefore denied probate.
The estate left by Mrs. Hawley is valued at $20,000 and is bequeathed to her surviving husband. There was a contest over the estate, and William G. Hawley was appointed administrator. The contest in the case has recently compromised.
Attorney Coombs appeared in court for the estate today. Mr. and Mrs. Kane were called as witnesses and gave their sensational evidence.
Mr. Coombs asked the witnesses if he had not visited them five days before the death of Mrs. Hawley to get them to sign the will. They declared that they did not remember the circumstance.
Mr. Coombs expressed surprise at the testimony of the witnesses, and wanted to make an explanation. Judge Hall said he had confidence in the attorney.
The attorney suggested that Hawley
and the Kanes had quarreled.
Mrs. Hawley committed suicide in this city by shooting herself. It was intimated that she had been murdered, and an investigation was ordered. The accusation of murder, however, fell to the ground.
The case now before the court seems to be one for investigation by the Grand Jury.

CANNON GOES OFF AGAIN.

He Says Congressman Johnson Would Be Shot in Manila.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Mr. Cannon in the House this afternoon declared that if speeches made by Mr. Johnson and others on the floor yesterday had been made in Manila they would have been tried by a drum-head court martial and shot.
Owing to the pressure of business the House met at 12 o'clock today. The Senate bill granting a right of way through the Nez Perce Indian reservation to the Clearwater Shortline railroad was passed;
also the Senate bill to compensate certain persons for private property in the Yellowstone Park.
Mr. Henderson of Iowa stated that on account of the great amount of public business to be disposed of during the remainder of the session, it was desirable that the House meet hereafter at 11 o'clock. Three appropriation bills were yet to pass the House, said he, and but three had gone to the President. An order to meet at 11 o'clock was made.
The House went into Committee of the Whole and resumed consideration of the army appropriation bill. Mr. Hay (D.) of Virginia, the ranking minority member of the committee, criticized the amount carried by the bill, which, he said, was plainly insufficient to maintain an army of 100,000. The hearings before the committee, he said, had shown that it cost $1,000 to maintain one enlisted man serving in this country, and more while serving abroad. The bill appropriated $70,000,000.
His estimate was $120,000,000.
He charged that the friends of a large standing army did not desire to let the country into the secret of its enormous cost. But there would surely be a deficiency.
Mr. Hull said he frankly conceded that if the reorganization reported to the Senate yesterday became a law there would be a deficiency. That bill provided for fifty-five regiments of infantry, against thirty in the House bill, a large staff and an increase in the number of enlisted men. There would be about 1,000 additional officers to pay for, and the deficiency in his opinion would be from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000.
DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A caucus of Democratic members of the House has been called for next Monday evening.
About forty Democratic members signed a request to Chairman Richardson of the Caucus Committee to call the meeting.
No particular topic is designated in the call, but it is understood that the purpose is to determine what attitude shall be taken as to the Philippines.

CLERK JORDAN TO GET RELIEF. Assessor Henry Dalton to Lose $7,000 a Year.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25.—Jordan's registration bill has been made a part of the county government act by Senator thus "practically assuring" its passage.
Assessor Dalton is in an anxious frame of mind.
He has discovered that the action of the delegation as it stands now deprives him of percentages on poll tax, military rolls etc., thus making a difference to him of $7,000 a year.
He is endeavoring, therefore, to have previous arrangements restored but has been notified that that can only be done by unanimous consent.

LEADERS OF THE FILIPINOS. Gen. Otis' Interpreter Names Some of the Ablest.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
DENVER, Col., Feb. 25.—E. V. De Montalvo, who has been acting as Major General Otis' interpreter at Manila, has arrived in Denver en route to his home in Cuba.
"I enlisted in the Utah Light Battery at the outbreak of the war," said Senator Montalvo. "I became General Otis' interpreter last September, and remained in that position until I set out for this country on January 1st. Very few persons ever saw Aguinaldo, and I did not, but while in the performance of my official duties I met many of the most able and prominent Filipinos. One of these was Secretary of State Masini, who is bitter against both the Spaniards and Americans. He is for absolute independence, and has great influence with the people.
"Ferdio de Tavora, the Secretary of the interior, is probably as talented a man as there is in the ranks of those who desire the Philippines for the Filipinos.
Senator Tuna is also one of their highest men."

JOHNSON GETS A COMPLIMENT.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—The sixty-second and sixty-third ballots for United States Senator were taken today. The first was devoted to the complimenting of William R. Hearst of the San Francisco Examiner and the New York Journal by the Democrats and of Grove L. Johnson of Sacramento by the Republicans.
Hearst received practically the whole vote of the minority.
Johnson received fourteen votes, taken from the forces of Burns, Grant, Bulla and Barnes.
Those who voted for Johnson were:
Senators Cutler and Leavitt, and As-semblymen De Lancia, Dibble, Henry, Knight, Knowland, La Barea, Land-
ner, Merrill, Miller of San Francisco, Raub, Robinson and Valentine.
A second roll call saw both Republicans and Democrats return to their old favorites. The vote on this ballot, the sixty-third of the session, was:
Burns 11, Estee 1, Bulla 1, Burns
(D.) 2, Grant 24, Bard 3, Scott 2, De Vries
(D.) 1, Rosenfeld (D.) 2, White (D.)
2, Phelan (D.) 2.
There was no change in the Republican vote over that of yesterday,
other than that caused by absentees and pairs.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
BOMBAY, February 24.—There are persistent rumors among the natives at Peshawar that the Ameer of Afghanistan, Abdur Rahman Khan, is dead. The Indian Government has not received any confirmation of this report, but it is thought quite probable that such information would come more speedily through native channels.

KILLS HIS WIFE TO WED ANOTHER. Chicago. Has a Fresh Leutger Murder Mystery.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—A strange parallel to the Leutger murder mystery was brought to light today. Albert A.
Becker, a sausage maker, living in the stock yard district, was arrested on suspicion of having murdered his wife on January 24th for the purpose of marrying a younger woman.
Although the woman's body has not yet been discovered, the police are inclined to believe that she has been murdered. Becker makes contradictory statements, and blood spots have been found on the walls and doors of the barn in the rear of the Becker residence.
Eight years ago Becker married Theresa Halenburgh in Milwaukee, and shortly afterward moved to Chicago.
Six months ago Becker became acquainted with 17-year-old Ida Sutterlin, and since then, according to his neighbors, he has been extremely cruel to his wife.
A few days before January 27 Becker
asked the Sutterlin girl to marry him,
and when she inquired about the woman already living with him, Becker said that she was a sister of his former wife and was employed by him as a housekeeper. A few days after January 27
the day Mrs. Becker disappeared, Becker married the Sutterlin girl.

MARK HANNA VINDICATED. Acquitted of Bribery Charge By Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The Senate Committee on Elections has decided that there was no case made in the protest against Senator Hanna of Ohio, and ordered such a report made to the Senate. Senator Turley of Tennessee reserved the right to make a statement concerning the matter to the Senate, though no minority report would be made.

SPITTING IN PUBLIC MUST BE STOPPED.

The ordinance against expectorating
on the walks, in cars or in public places, has gone into effect, having been approved by the Mayor.
Chief Fletcher, however, has decided to not enforce its provisions until Monday next, as he is desirous of letting the people become aware of the existence of the measure before trying to enforce its provisions. The penalty inflicted for a first offense is a fine of $5. Officers today notified those who load on street corners and stand around saloons and cigar stands that public expectoration will be a dear habit to indulge in.

JUDGE BURKE IS CONVICTED.

Culmination of a Scandal Growing Out of Hanna's Senatorial Fight.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 25.—State Senator Vernon H. Burke was today found guilty in the Circuit Court of the first specification in the charges brought against him. Judge Caldwell read the findings of the court.
Burke was charged in the first specification with being engaged by Judge Dellenbaugh as attorney in the Manning alienation case, and as such attorney, with extorting $10,000 from
"Jane Doe" in settlement of the case.
"As the evidence now stands before this court," he said, "we find that Judge Dellenbaugh and Judge Vernon
H. Burke were jointly the attorneys of Neddie B. Manning during the acts complained of in the first specification.
We previously found that Judge Dellenbaugh did receive $1,100, one-third of the fees paid in the Manning case, and the weight of the evidence showed that Dellenbaugh participated in the management of the Manning case up to the time of the division of the fees.
"It is necessary for the court to speak of these two men together in passing on the charges against Mr.
Burke, as it is almost impossible to separate the facts in each case."
"Just prior to the publication of this case," Judge Caldwell continued,
"Burke had a talk with Judge Dis-sette, in which he told in detail all the facts in the case. Judge Dissette states that Burke said Dellenbaugh told him to go down and strike 'Jane Doe' for $20,000.
"Jane Doe" said she could not have the story come out, and that she could not raise $20,000; she said she could raise $10,000, which she did raise and gave to Burke and Dellenbaugh.
Judge Dissette says he told Burke that that was the coldest-blooded affair he ever heard of. Our conclusion," said Judge Caldwell, "is that Mr.

WHO WILL GIVE THIS LAD A CHANCE TO WORK.

Judge Ogden Takes Pity on a Wandering Youth.

Two applications to have young boys sent to the reform school were heard by Judge Ogden this morning.
They were John Osbourne alias Arthur Hanson aged 15 years and Tony Dellarecca, aged 11 years.
John Osbourne was arrested in Emeryville by Deputy Constable Hewlett for sleeping in a barn. Owing to his youth the authorities decided that something ought to be done with the boy.
According to his story he left his father's home in New York last October and has since that time been traveling from place to place in search of work. He had no special reason for leaving home. His father was not cruel to him and gave him a good home and allowed him to go to school.
His mother is dead, but he lived with his brothers and sisters. John is next to the youngest in the family. He decided to leave his home and seek his fortunes in the West. He found that work was hard to get and was reduced to asking for work to get his meals.
He is too proud to go home and would much prefer to go to Whittier and learn a trade than to tramp the country. He is willing to accept any kind of steady work but positively refuses to return to his home. He thinks that if he had a trade he would be able to earn a good livelihood. For this reason he wished to be sent to Whittier. He told Judge Ogden that he had never stolen anything and did not tell falsehoods.
He wished to earn a living honestly.
His answers were so straightforward and honest that Judge Ogden was impressed with the boy. He told him of the disadvantages attaching to one who was sent to a reform school, and said if John was willing he would suspend action in his case for a couple of days, so that some work might be secured for him.
He had an uncle in San Francisco some time ago, and an effort will be made to find him. The father, who is a lithographer in New York, will also be communicated with. John declared if he was sent home he would run away again. He will be confined in the County Jail till some decision in his case is reached.
The other applicant, Tony Dellarecca, was ordered sent to Whittier. He was convicted in the Police Court of having stolen $10 from his school teacher, Miss Campbell. Tony has also been caught stealing other things on different occasions. Two of his older brothers have already been sent to Whittier as incorrigibles. The father, Dominick Dellarecca, keeps a bootblack stand on Seventh street between Broadway and Washington street. There are ten children in the family.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1909.

The Senatorial "situation" is proving a hard one to fill.

A San Joaquin hen is credited with having laid three eggs the other morning. That must have been in Fresno or some other better community where they are in the habit of laying the odds.

There need be no surprise because the Oregon has been compelled to lay up for two weeks at Honolulu to make repairs to her boilers. Nobody ever claimed that they would last forever, and surely, after the trip from San Francisco to Cuban waters and back again, they are entitled to an overhauling.

Grover Cleveland pines for the White House again, and it is announced that he has formulated a new Democratic policy which he will endeavor to head in the Presidential campaign next year. It is needless to say that a man of Grover's build is opposed to expansion, and he will make that the prime issue of his fight.

That Governor Gage is keeping a very watchful eye upon the legislation that is in progress in the chambers above him is shown by the business-like messages with which he disposes of the bills reaching his hands of which he desires to voice his disapproval. It is a tolerably sure thing that very few bills centered in measures that reach the executive office succeed in getting away alive.

The finding of Andree is gradually becoming as perennial a chestnut as the sea-serpent, the mermaid, the serious illness of Pope Leo and all the other standing newspaper yarns. The latest report locates him in Siberia about 50,000 miles from where he was seen the other day, and the customary "proofs" of the authenticity of the story are to be along in a few days. Andree little thought when he set forth upon his fatal trip what a lot of lying his venture would give birth to.

Those who have been figuring that the arrival of the Santa Fe at San Francisco Bay would result in a war that would smash all the existing rates into smithereens, can come to the conclusion that they have been sadly miscalculating. "The Santa Fe is not coming here to enter into a railway war," says Vice-President Morton of that line. "It will do what it can to develop the State, but rate wars do no one any good." Which is very true, for what the public gains at one time in diminished rates is more than repaid later on when the combination is all patched up again.

PROPOSED PRISON REFORM.

Assemblyman A. S. Millican has followed up his bill No. 625, relating to prison reform, with an effective circular description and defense of it that will tend to recommend it to legislators and to students of the science of penology.

With his main proposition, that first offenders, the young and others who give evidence of capacity for reform ought not to be classed and housed with hardened criminals, every thoughtful person must agree. His reasons for proposing a separate institution for convicts of this lighter shade, to be procured without extra outlay by the State, through the sale of the outgrown San Quentin site and property for residence purposes, and the transfer of the incorrigibles now in that institution to the more modern establishment at Folsom, to be enlarged for the purpose also out of the proceeds of the San Quentin sale, are very cogently set forth.

The bill has been referred to the Committee on State Prisons and Reformatories, where, it is to be hoped and expected, it will receive the careful consideration which its importance demands. In the meantime, Mr. Millican's little circular treatise on this subject will have the effect of presenting it to legislators and others in such a manner as to awaken interest in it and enable public sentiment to keep pace with and support the steps of legislation.

SNOW'S AUSPICIOUS CAMPAIGN.

Oakland's city campaign is proceeding in a manner highly satisfactory to the Republicans. It is equally satisfactory to all classes of citizens. It is, so far as the Republicans are concerned, a campaign of education. The Republicans have nominated a ticket that is excellent throughout. What is a matter of the first importance, it is a ticket that is ably commanded.

W. R. Snow is an admirable leader. He is known to his fellow citizens as a tried and competent public servant and a thorough student and master of the details of Oakland's municipal conditions and needs. His repeated terms of successful administration of the important office of Auditor have given him at once a deep and practical insight into the requirements of Oakland and an acquaintance with the spirit of its people. They have at the same time made all classes of Oakland people familiar with his spirit and methods. While Auditor Snow has been acquiring a training that has fitted him perhaps above any other man who could have been named for the duties of this city's chief executive, his fellow citizens have been gaining that degree of confidence in him which will assure the city a harmonious and successful administration.

The people of Oakland know that Mr. Snow, when he becomes by their suffrages their Mayor, may be depended upon to keep the tax levy within reasonable limits, while he will see to it that the city's credit is maintained and that no important department of the public service is neglected.

Oakland, at the present time, is in a formative and to that extent a critical stage. It is on the threshold of a large expansion. Its relations to the new impulses which the nation's departure upon a destiny of Oriental expansion will impart to the Pacific Coast industrial, shipping and mercantile interests, are bound to make Oakland one of the foremost cities of the continent. Never before in the history of Oakland was its needs of a municipal administration at once conservative, progressive and practical, so apparent and imperative. Oakland is, therefore, especially to be congratulated on having the assurance of such a Mayor as W. R. Snow will make.

PRESIDENT JORDAN'S MANNERS.

Rev. Dr. Robert F. Coyle of Oakland is entitled to the gratitude of the whole country for the kindly but effective way in which he has corrected the manners of President Jordan. He is entitled to President Jordan's gratitude as well, which no doubt he will receive when that distinguished gentleman shall have come to himself. President Jordan manifestly at present is not himself. He could not have been himself when he descended from the place of a broad, national discussion into commonplace abuse of the President of the United States. Such methods of argument may be expected from such howling Derivishes as Henry U. Johnson of Indiana, but not from the genial and cultured President of Stanford University.

President David Starr Jordan is nothing. In the field of discursive oratory which he chooses to cultivate, if not good humored, candid, tolerant and many-sided. In discussing scientific and sociological questions he is all this, and these attributes lend a peculiar charm to whatever he may say. It is only in the later stages of his espousal of the unpopular, un-American and untenable side of the question of national expansion that he has departed from his usual spirit and standards and fallen into objectionable methods.

So foreign to his nature and reputation to mention his dignified and responsible position, is this decadence of President Jordan that the public of California at least will be grateful to Dr. Coyle for the charitable construction which he has placed upon the Stanford University President's lamentable lapses.

NOW FOR A SENATOR.

With every day that passes now the demand of the Republicans of the State of California upon the Legislature for the choice of some good Republican to represent this State in the United States Senate becomes more urgent and imperative. With every passing day it becomes more apparent that the only way for the accomplishment of this prime duty of the Legislature is for its Republican members to lay aside their preferences and their prepossessions, come together as Republicans and patriotic Californians and agree upon any known and tried Republican who may prove to have a majority of the votes of the body so inspired and so constituted.

This is the Republican way, the patriotic way, the fair way, and the only way. The interests of the State call for it, the Republicans of the State demand it, and the welfare of the Republican party of the nation requires it.

ORCHARDS RAPIDLY BEING RUINED.

The fruit raisers in Washington Township are anticipating a very dry season. In fact the lack of sufficient rain has already ruined many orchards and has seriously injured the fruit crop. The following from the Washington Press shows the condition of affairs:

"Numerous fruit raisers in Washington township are putting in pumping plants to run by both gasoline and steam engines with which to irrigate their fast drying orchards. During the past week several farmers have taken this means to save their trees from entire ruin, and more are preparing to follow the example."

Comment On Passing Events.

By HENRY A. CHITTENDEN.

What is so rare as a holiday in Oakland?

"When are these elections coming off—I mean all this business of Burns and Snow and Mr. Cleary?" said an 8-year-old Oakland young hopeful at the family dining table the other evening.

Who dares to remark that politics makes strange bed-fellows?

General Milnes did not use quite such ardent language in talking about the beef question, as Commissary General Bagan, but he seems to regret it just as sincerely.

Creelman's attack on Senator Hoar was as puerile as it was outrageous. That is to say, it was thoroughly Creelman. Nobody could be made for a moment to entertain the suspicion that Senator Hoar would communicate with the enemies of his country, much less direct them in their fighting. The public utterances of Senator Hoar and his school of Senatorial insurgents were bad enough, and sufficiently calculated to give aid and comfort to the enemy. What a pity to see good lying wasted!

There is a suggestion yet to be added to the subject of the oatmeal trust which the Tribune has editorially disposed of. The Tribune's remedy for the projected combine of some twenty manufacturers of breakfast foods with a capital of thirty millions, namely, that the household evade it, and keep down prices to suit, by going back to first principles, and taking its oatmeal straight and in bulk from the miller, any miller, is good as far as it goes, only it does not go far enough.

Why not do away entirely or largely with the present system of grocery fancy packages? Grocers, the middlemen, would gain by their abolition, because it would leave so much more money in the hands of their customers with which to pay their bills. If people would live simpler, less fastidiously, they might live really better, and afford no reason or pretext to the grocers, at any rate, for talking about going to the Legislature for stricter laws for the collection of debts.

The truth is that the prevailing way of putting up and marketing groceries, into which the trade has fallen, is one of the most glaring evidences of the ingrained extravagance of the American people. The family flour barrel, the sugar barrel and the molasses jug have vanished, and with them the old primitive thrift of our forefathers. The commonest and blindest staples of domestic consumption, nowadays, as well as compact and delicate articles, are served in all manner of small packages, at prices as fancy as their flamboyant labels. Maple syrup comes in apothecary vials, codfish must be boned and shredded, and even the stanch old soda cracker of commerce and the country store is done up in ball gown attire. All this style and gymcrackery costs, and the cost must fall upon the household in the end.

Ian MacLaren on returning from his first visit to this country, told his British audience that America wastes enough in its kitchens to feed any European nation. This fancy package system is one of our wastes. Not until the American people shall have learned better how to pay its money for the kernel of things instead of for the husks and wrappings, will we be sure that the international trade balances are on our side and permanently here.

Some persons, so far as I have observed all of them outside of State University circles, are worrying over the lapse of certain Regency appointments into the hands of Governor Gage, by the Senate's neglect to confirm the eleventh hour appointments of Governor Budd.

They are unnecessarily worrying. There is no ground in this incident for the apprehension that politics are being imported into the University management, and not the slightest ground for distrust of Governor Gage. He has pledged to take a friendly and helpful interest in the welfare of this most important of the State's institutions, and it will be found that he will do so. The fact that circumstances have given him, near the threshold of his administration, the appointment of a number of Regents, will merely tend to quicken, as well as demonstrate, our new Governor's interest in the University. It must in the nature of things, identify him with it and increase his sense of responsibility for its safe and smooth conduct in its relations with the State.

This does not necessarily mean that Governor Gage will adopt all of Governor Budd's lapse nominees, as he certainly will some of them. Should he do so, that act would be one of degree of grace rather extraordinary in politics and would show to the most third cavaliers how completely above politics our State University is. On the other hand, there would be nothing out of the way if the present Governor should use some selection in filling these appointments, providing he used it discreetly, as he certainly would. Nobody will claim that all the timber for Regents in this State has been exhausted.

The evidence that Governor Gage has given of his interest in the selection of a successor to Dr. Kellogg, by asking the Regents to put off that matter until he could take a part in it, I consider one of the most auspicious signs. Governor Gage may or he may not have a candidate

WATER RATES MONDAY NIGHT.

Council Committee to Get an Ordinance Ready.

At the meeting of the Fire and Water Committee of the Council last night all the members were present.

It was unanimously decided that there would be no more testimony received from the local water companies as regards the value of their plants and that at the meeting of the Council next Monday night a resolution or ordinance establishing water rates for next year, based on the information already before the committee, would be introduced. This action was taken on a motion made by Mr. Earl.

When the subject was introduced Mr. Earl wanted to know if Mr. Dingee of the Oakland Water Company was present.

At the last meeting a motion was adopted to the effect that Mr. Dingee be requested to appear before the committee and give facts as to the cost of the Oakland Water Company's plant.

In response to Mr. Earl's question last night the clerk announced that Mr. Dingee had not put in an appearance. He stated, however, that he thought Attorney Nussbaumer was on hand to represent the gentleman.

Mr. Nussbaumer came forward and spoke for the missing founder of the Oakland Water Company.

"As Mr. Dingee," he said, "is about to withdraw from the water business and is satisfied that you will in future know more about water than he does, he is not trying to get a forecast from the United States Government signal officers as to whether there is going to be rain. So long as he has withdrawn from the water business, he doesn't care whether the wells of the Oakland company hang out or whether the reservoir of the Contra Costa Water Company runs dry."

Mr. Earl said there was no use in asking Mr. Nussbaumer any questions. Mr. Pringle said that the Council wanted to get Mr. Dingee's statement under oath.

Mr. Nussbaumer said that Mr. Dingee had filed his statement.

Mr. Pringle said that the statement filed was only one of expenses of the company.

Mr. Nussbaumer said that the statement was made under oath and that under the law an oath was presumed to contain the truth until it was proven to be false.

Mr. Nussbaumer was asked how many miles of pipe the Oakland Water Company had.

He replied that he thought it was about twenty-two miles to Alvarado.

This was said in a humorous manner and occasioned some laughter.

"How many hydrants for fire purposes have you?" Mr. Nussbaumer was asked.

"Well," he replied, "there's one two blocks away from my house, which will prevent me from burning down."

The committee wanted no more information which Mr. Nussbaumer stood ready to give and Mr. Earl's motion as outlined above was adopted.

If every woman who expects to become a mother would read that great book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., there would be stronger mothers and healthier, happier children in this world. In this grand volume several hundred of the foremost living experts in this particular field of practice. His "Favorite Prescription" is the most wonderful medicine ever invented to restore natural organic strength and power to the delicate feminine structure which is most intimately concerned in motherhood. Taken during the time of anticipation it deprives this ordeal of all its accustomed terrors and dangers; makes the coming of baby absolutely safe and comparatively painless; renders the mother strong and cheerful, and helps to endow the child with a strong, healthy constitution.

Mrs. Mabel Jordan, of Swedford, Lewis Co., Washington, writes: "I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription until the very last day. We now have a new baby, and I feel as if I had suffered less pain than with any of the others, this being the sixth child, and she has good health and power to take care of herself—something I could not do with the other babies. Have been gaining in strength every day and feel well. All thanks to God and to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription!"

ALAMEDA NEWS.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 25.—John Hansen, one of Alameda's prominent young business men, was taken with a violent paroxysm of sneezing a few days ago, and for some time was in a critical condition. The attack came on while Mr. Hansen was at work in his office, as the result of a chill, and increased in severity until he collapsed and had to be taken to his home on Eagle avenue and physicians called in. He remained in a comatose state for a long time, and when he regained consciousness complained of violent pains in the head. Upon examination it was discovered that the drum of his left ear had been injured and his hearing somewhat impaired. His eyesight, which had previously been perfect, was also slightly affected, but the doctors state that the injury will only be temporary.

The Eighth Regiment Band will be unable to appear at the entertainment to be given at Armory Hall tonight by Company G. For that reason the concert feature of the program had to be omitted. A reception and dance will be given, however.

BRANDES WILL TELL HIS STORY TO THE JURY.

His Attorneys Decide to Put Him on the Stand.

It is probable that the prosecution in the trial of W. A. Brandes, charged with murder, will finish its case by next Friday. The attorneys for the defense will then place Brandes on the witness stand to give his version of the death of his daughter. He has made no sworn statement as yet in regard to the affair, and there is much speculation going on as to how he will explain some very ugly facts. Mrs. Brandes may be put on the stand to corroborate her husband's story. The attorneys for the defense had not decided until yesterday as to whether they would have Brandes testify. Attorney Bennett in speaking about the matter said:

"I think it is best to put Brandes on the stand. So far he has made practically no official statement of the girl's death. He will probably take the stand yesterday afternoon. We will call upon his wife to corroborate his story."

Dr. F. H. Payne and Dr. H. N. Row, all two of the autopsy physicians, were examined yesterday afternoon and corroborated the testimony of Dr. H. S. Buteau. No matter how

The Meddler.

The Lenten gray is streaked with palest lavender and mauve. We eschew dancing, but we go to the play and we dine sumptuously. We play at whist and occasionally we go to church and there are little Lenten sacrifices of butter and sweets and other things, the loss of which is our complexion's decided gain. We are keeping Lent ostentatiously but not rigorously. Some of us go to church early on Mondays, but the most of us see in Lent merely the cessation of coiffures, and really we are a bit tired of dancing.

However, on the Iowa on Thursday where the spacious quarter-deck was comfortably canvassed snugly from the north wind which was howling, I saw a number of Oakland girls dancing and drinking the most seductive navy punch. I expect their mothers would have been shocked had they seen them, but then, you know, they did not know there was going to be dancing, and once in a way, even during Lent, cannot matter especially. The occasion was a reception which the officers of the Iowa gave to the Bohemian University, Pacific Union, San Francisco, and I don't know how many other men's clubs, and of course all the girls were taken along, and it was really very unusual and merry. There was the band from Mare Island to dance by, but how could we know that there would be dancing when it didn't say so on the invitations? To be sure, some of us wore our very thinnest patent leathers, but that was not because we expected to dance, oh no. It was because we wanted our feet to look pretty when we climbed ladders and did unusual things of that sort. But more fun even than the dancing and the soft eyes of those naval officers was the dear black goat who lives on the Iowa. His name? How can you ask? It is Billy, of course. He is as black as he can be and on his neck he wears the sweetest silver tag, which says that he was in the battle of Santiago and witnessed the destruction of Cervera's fleet.

They tell such a running thing about him. It seems that before the first battle the men who dearly love Billy, took him in a place of safety, so he was safely led, on ever so many occasions, and tied in the bottom of a gun, where he couldn't possibly get out. But where he was unlikely to be seen by any stray shot. Billy went down after protest. He pulled at his chain and it took several blue jackets to force him into going. But when the firing began in the second battle, that wise goat ran all by himself down to the place where he had been so safe before. And there he stayed until the firing ceased. Billy's strong point is the better part of valor.

When Mayor Phelan entertained the sailors in the park Billy went along, his black hair beautifully brushed and parted and polished. He has been away from green food so long that he wouldn't touch the grass, but much preferred the tobacco from the pipes of the men.

The event of the week was the golf party given by Mrs. Oscar F. Long. It was really a charming affair and I cannot see for the life of me why more people do not entertain in that way. The guests really had great fun, and the golfers are very active just now in this lovely weather. There is never a day when the links are not dotted with players and on Saturdays and Sundays there is really a jam. Eight young ladies from San Francisco and eight from Oakland were invited by Mrs. Long and they all came in their pretty golfing dress and looked as picturesque as possible. The play was very interesting, part of it before lunch and part of it afterward, and resulted in the prizes being won by Miss Mhoon and Miss Marie Dean—both of Alameda county, please take note, and this in spite of the fact that Miss Ella Morgan is such a very good player. The prizes were dear things—cute silver loving cups. Mrs. Long did not play herself, but presided at the luncheon table which was prettily decorated. The menu was quite simple and appropriate for young ladies in training. The guests from San Francisco were Mrs. Harry Goodwin, Miss Minnie Houghton, Mrs. Clinton Worden, Miss Maud O'Connor, Miss Morgan, Miss Therese Morgan, Miss Taylor and Mrs. Buckbee. Those from Oakland were Mrs. Harry Knowles, Miss Alice Moffitt, Mrs. C. O. G. Miller, Miss Joliffe, Miss Mhoon, Miss Dean, Miss Florence Sharon, Miss Moffitt and Miss Miller. All these played except Miss Sharon, who assisted Mrs. Long in entertaining.

I was so glad that it was kept a golf party and did not become merely a luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac L. Requa are going to spend a few days at Del Monte for a little rest and change.

Quite a number of Oaklanders are at Hotel del Coronado. Among them are Mrs. Lucile May Hayes, who went down with the A. P. Hotalings and Mrs. Carrie Belle McCallum and Mrs. Will Melvin. Coronado is very gay just now and there is lots of fun brewing there.

Mrs. Florence Adele Crooks, who was Miss Blas of Santa Cruz before she was the wife of one of the Crooks brothers, was married on Valentine's day to Robert Stuart Browne, one of the dearest secret service men of the United States. Mrs. Crooks is very pretty, stylish and charming, and is said to have done exceedingly well. Her husband is a charming fellow. Both are well off and each has a son by a former marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Browne will live in Washington, D. C., though they expect to come to California every year to look after Mrs. Browne's property here, which is in the Crooks trust. The wedding trip will be to the Southern States and Cuba. Mrs. Crooks lived in Oakland for some time, where she is well and favorably known.

In addition to Miss Margaret Herlihy, who is doing so well in New York, there is Miss Anna Frances Briggs, who is having the most gorgeous time in Europe which could possibly be imagined. Miss Briggs is a perfectly lovely girl—so lovely that one of the foremost portrait painters in England is painting her portrait, and the lovely Titian hair and delicate features will be hung in the spring at the London exhibition. Miss Briggs is having a truly charming time. Art dealers in New York have taken up her pictures and have asked her to send more from Holland, everyone has looked after her in traveling and she has been extensively feted and entertained in London. For some time she was with Miss Ray Frank—until the beginning of the year. Then they parted company, Miss Frank going to Frankfurt, where she has relatives, and Miss Briggs remaining in London. Miss Frank is engaged in literary work and tries to eschew society, though she finds it hard work. Miss Briggs paints during the daylight hours in the London galleries, copying Turners and Constables' water colors. After hours she goes to the rounds of teas and musicales and private views. She is in the artistic clique with opportunities to meet all the painter people and musicians worth knowing. She says in regard to dear Mrs. Martin Schultz that that lady is quite the rage in New York and is singing before the Goulds and Rockefeller and the other nabobs of Lakewood every week. In New York Miss Briggs visited the Hungarian composer, Max Hertz, and she classes this experience as one of the most delightful of her life. In London she has attended the meetings of the American Woman's League, the Rembrandt collection and the Burns-Jones exhibition, and she says that either of these were worth crossing the ocean to see. She has also taken tea at the studio of the celebrated Alfred Parsons, best known to us as the talented illustrator of Shakespeare, though known to Englishmen by numberless more ambitious, though perhaps not more important work.

In a few weeks, Miss Briggs expects to tear herself away from London and go to Paris. In June she goes to Holland for three or four months.

Some girls always were lucky.

The Macdonough has given us some charming evening entertainments of late, and we have been taking advantage of them to the full. The theater was crowded during every evening of the James and Ward engagement. The gowns were the handsomest that have ever been worn at the Macdonough—not decollete but exceedingly handsome and costly as to material and cut. All society was there, so much so that it is almost useless to give names. The same people seemed to be there every night, and the big stag theater party was as much a sight as the play. The Millers were seated for the season, the Requa were there every night, also the Longs, the Browns, the Tubbs family in all its many ramifications, the Sharons, the Hushes, the Magers, the Tafts, the Trowbridges—everybody in fact. Kathryn Kidder was always a favorite here, and she is quite as "Madame Sans Gêne." We decked ourselves in our prettiest, as much to do her honors as anything—she always has such stunning frocks herself. Seriously, we see no reason why we should be ugly just because it is Lent. We are not moulting especially. Instead, we are putting on our finest plumage, and some of us never had such pretty gowns before. Florence Brown, whose father has made a recent fortune in sugar, is becoming one of the most fashionably dressed women in Oakland. Water stocks are also looking up, and there are new things all round in the various families of Chabot. Time is generally better, and I predict that the Easter hats will be prettier this year than ever in the memory of woman.

I forgot to tell you last week that one of the prettiest gowns at the Mardi Gras was the violet gown worn by Mrs. Allen. She was charming in it.

On Thursday Misses Carrie and Belle Nicholson gave a very charming tea at their home on Eighth street in honor of Mrs. Rupert Blue. There were charming floral decorations and a fashionable crowd. The Misses Nicholson were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Willie Rosenfeld, Mrs. Emmet Nicholson and other friends. A fashionable crowd was present, and some of the gowns were really very pretty.

We are all going to the Whist today. It is Hawaiian day.

I am sorry that the very pretty reception given last night by Colonel and Mrs. Bendel on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage is too late for me to record extensively. I know that there was a very large number of guests and that the reception, and that all the prominent people in the German colony from both sides of the bay were bidden, and that the Colonel and his wife were to be assisted in receiving by their fine family of grown daughters and growing sons, one of whom traveled all the way from New York to be present. There was to be an elaborate supper, the Germans going in for substantial refreshments with half a dozen kinds of cold meats and an elaborate display of salads and cold dishes. For good eating command me to Germany. But that is a very materialistic view to take. As I said last week, every one always had such a good time at the Bendels—they are so simply and genuinely hospitable.

This is all in my slender little script this time. I'm afraid there is no immediate chance of improvement, but Lent is already almost two weeks gone, so there is hope.

Think of me as your Lenten girl.

The flowers blooming at this time of year attracted the attention of the men, who said very few had been sent out to them. The ladies, who have an over-abundance would do well to send a few flowers to the strangers within this Golden Gate.

OUR MARY CURZON CONQUESTS THE ORIENTAL HEART.

A Lurid Chapter in the Domestic Life of an Earl's Brother Exploited in the Divorce Court.

(Copyrighted, 1899, by the Associated Press.)
LONDON, Feb. 25.—It is expected that the new United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James, Joseph H. Choate, who left New York on board the American line steamer St. Paul for Southampton on Wednesday last, will be presented to Queen Victoria by the British Prime Minister, Lord Salisbury, on March 7th, at Windsor Castle, when her Majesty will hold a private council, prior to her departure for the south of France.

It is possible that the Queen will not go to Climbé, although every preparation has been made for her departure. It seems that it depends largely upon the course of events in France during the next few days, and it is certain that many Englishmen do not wish her Majesty to go to France just now.

The Queen at present, is enjoying wonderful health, save for an occasional touch of rheumatism, which is exempt from the nervous headache to which she was formerly a victim, her hearing remains very acute, and even her sight is stronger than that of most persons of her age.

The decoration of Lady Curzon of Kedleston, wife of the Viceroy of India, with the Imperial Order of the Crown of India, is a high distinction, as the order is practically reserved for royal ladies and the wives of Secretaries of State of India, Viceroy, Governor, and native princes. The Indian mails just received show that Lady Curzon had made a conquest of Anglo-Indian society, while the native papers pay her glowing tributes.

LADY CURZON'S CHARM.
The Bangabasi, a Bengali, in a truly oriental eulogy declares, "All the goddesses of the Hindoo Pantheon must hide their heads in the presence of Lady Curzon, who, like a diamond setting, or a full moon in a clear autumnal sky."

The paper adds: "Her color is golden, her hair is like warm sunlight, her eyes are like a pair of pearls, her waist is beautifully slender, and her hair like raven tresses, setting off her white complexion, making her look as if she were a queen. Her head is beautifully poised on a swan-like neck, her eyes, handsomely purple, are ever restless and homing with intelligence, and her mouth is like a smile, her neck is like the neck of a swan and her voice resembles that of a cuckoo."

This rhapsody concludes with saying Lady Curzon has moral and intellectual gifts seldom allied with such beauty. A representative of the Associated Press writes that Pierpont Morgan is to bear the entire cost, amounting to about $25,000, of the installation of electric lights in St. Paul's Cathedral.

A PAINFUL SCANDAL.
A sad story came out in the divorce court this week, when the Hon. d'Arny Lambton, seventh brother of the Earl of Durham, obtained a divorce from his wife, formerly an Australian actress. There were three co-respondents. Lambton's counsel said the actress had persuaded her client, before their marriage, that she had £500 a year and was expecting a fortune when she came of age. They were married in 1878, and returned to England from Australia in 1880. Later Mrs. Lambton attempted to commit suicide in a hotel in Paris. Finally, counsel added, the Earl of Durham heard unpleasant rumors and told his brother, the latter taking up the matter with the statement, and she ran away from her home. Afterward she wrote her husband a pitiful epistle, which was read in court, pleading for forgiveness for the sake of their child, a daughter, born in 1891, and the mother of the late Mrs. Lambton said: "When you have heard the truth you will not wonder why I have so often tried to end my life. I began with a lie; but I have suffered for it. We are nearly starving. My confession of guilt is the greatest punishment of my life. Like a coward, I was too much afraid to tell the truth about my mother, sister and money they never had. I am guilty of nearly all the vile things they say of me. What with drink and dissipation, I have sunk very low. If I could only have the chance of being good again I would jump at it. Have mercy upon me."

The scandal recalls the "painful" circumstances of the Earl of Durham's marriage. He wedded a strikingly beautiful girl. The bride appeared strangely at the wedding, and when the couple went to the Earl's country seat she behaved in a most peculiar manner. Eventually, the train came on the Earl. His wife was mad. Treatment was tried, but not successfully. The Earl applied to the courts to nullify the marriage, but his application was refused.

The Countess is now an inmate of an asylum for the insane at Sussex.

THE LEAGUE OF MERCY.
The Prince of Wales' hospital fund, which started off with such a flourish of trumpets, is now known to have proved more or less of a failure. Matinees, concerts, balls and every such expedient have been tried, but the fund is still a failure. Now an extraordinary scheme is projected—the creation of a new order to be called the League of Mercy, in which the people who collect and promote the collection of money for the hospital fund are enrolled as members. The new order will be based on the Royal Victorian order, and will consist of five classes, the highest being Knights Grand Cross. There will be a distinctive badge, ribbon and sash. The motto of the order will be "Christo et Rege." The Prince of Wales will be grand master.

THE CZAR'S HYPOCRISY.
Advice received here from Scandinavia says that the Czar's decree for the Russian revolution has awakened a feeling of indignation and sympathy. The Swedish papers characterize the decree as a coup d'état. It provides for an increase of the Russian forces, the extension of conscription, and makes Russian obligatory and the official language. The Swedish papers say that the Czar's decree is a coup d'état.

At professors at Helsinki University have been replaced by Russians.
The Swedish indignantly call upon the government to abstain from taking part in the Czar's Peace Congress, which they designate as hypocritical. The prominent officers of Finland have sought an audience with the Czar on the subject, but their request has been refused.

THATATRICAL NOTES.
Manager Frohman has arranged for Mrs. Leslie Carter and the principal members of his American company to appear in "Zaza" in 1899.
At a matinee on Wednesday at St. Francis Hall, in behalf of the propagation of Christianity in China and the society to abolish foot binding among Chinese women, a Chinese play was performed in English. It was entitled "Barrowing Books," which has been a favorite for centuries past on the Chinese stage. It proved very entertaining.

THE "97'S" MASQUERADE.
Masonic hall presented a bright appearance last Tuesday night. The occasion was the fifth party of the season given by the "97's." The party was for members only, and took the form of a masquerade.
The hall was decorated in a unique and striking manner. Through it flitted numerous wearers of costumes ranging from the simple and grotesque to the elegant and imposing. The hooded monk and the spangled fairy, the courtier and the clown, the titled lady and the peasant maid mingling with the throng, formed many an odd contrast that heightened the effectiveness of the scene. Much liveliness was lent to the occasion by the sprightly gyrations in which the comical characters were impersonated.

There were light refreshments, and the music was excellent. The dance extended into the morning hours. It was a success in every way.
The next gathering will mark the end of the season for the "97's." The club, which had its inception in 1896, and is therefore nearing the end of its third year, will then rest until another winter. It is intended to make the farewell assembly an elaborate affair.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.
Oakland Council No. 3, Daughters of Liberty are going to give a grand masquerade ball, March 2nd at Loring Hall, Eleventh and Clay streets. A handsome door prize will be given, and many the gifts for the lucky contestants.
The committee of arrangements for this unique affair is Mrs. B. Reynolds, Mrs. M. E. Coleman, Mrs. E. Larimer, Mrs. A. N. Hager, and Mrs. E. Larimer.

CASHMAN-RICE.
A very pretty wedding took place in St. Rose's church in San Francisco, in which the bride was Miss Anastasia A. Cashman, a young lady well known in this city where she formerly resided. The groom was George A. Rice, a member of the Plymouth Quarter. The bride was accompanied to the altar by her father and attended by her sister, Miss Maggie Cashman, as bridesmaid. Mr. J. O'Connell acted as best man. William Wallard and Fred O'Connell acted as ushers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father O'Connell, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Alameda. During the progress of the exercises, the choir sang most sweetly a new nuptial hymn. This was followed by a magnificent rendition of "Ave Maria" by Frank Coffin whose tenor voice was in excellent condition. The bride was tastefully dressed in a gown of white tulle, and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The bridesmaid wore white tulle and white mouseline de sole and carried bridesmaid roses.

The couple has gone on a bridal tour to Monterey. Their home will be at 1164 Church street.

A JOINT PICNIC.
Arrangements have already been begun for the holding of the grand joint picnic by Court Shell Mound and Court Justino Social Clubs, which is to be held April 1st at Shell Mound. The committee in charge intends to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable ever given.

FORESTERS MASQUERADE.
The joint masquerade ball given by the Forest Circle No. 122 and Court Advocate No. 7,378, A. O. F., at Pythian Castle proved both financially and socially a grand success.
The hall was crowded with maskers of all descriptions. Prizes were given to the following: Mrs. Glude, "Columbia," best dressed lady; Mr. Leighton, velvet bicycle suit; best sustained character, lady, Mrs. Newman, "The Examiner." The committee of arrangements was as follows: Mrs. Harwood, chairman; Miss Ferris, Miss Kiley, Mrs. Frankman, Miss Smith, Mrs. Peregrine, and Mrs. Ash.

The Circle will give a social dance in the near future.
EINTRACHT MASQUERADE.
The Oakland Verein Eintracht will give its twentieth annual masquerade tonight at Germania Hall.
The committee has made elaborate arrangements for the evening, and the decorations are to be very fine. Only those in costumes or dominoes will be allowed to dance before twelve o'clock.
These parties are very popular ones, and a large attendance is assured.

THE VIOLETS" DANCE.
The first party given by "The Violets" will take place in Pythian hall, corner of Franklin and Twelfth streets, on March 7th.

The arrangements are about completed and an unusually pleasant time is expected by the friends of the club. Music is to be furnished by the Bliss orchestra.

PLEASANT RECEPTION.

The Niles Chautauque Circle was tendered a pleasant reception on the evening of St. Valentine's Day, by Mrs. M. I. Waters-Thorne. It was an informal affair, having been arranged as a surprise for the members.

The decorations of the pretty home were of bamboo, smilax and acacia. There were branches of the Japanese orange with its fruit, which was an effective decoration. On the walls were paper hearts, with small Cupids were everywhere visible.

The evening was devoted to games and refreshments were served late in the evening.
Among those who enjoyed Mrs. Waters-Thorne's hospitality were Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Higley, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark, Miss Beth Jerer, Miss Edna Hammer, Mrs. Lucy Bath, W. O. Cole, A. R. and H. J. Wace and Mrs. Thorne.

WHIST CLUBS CELEBRATE.

The close of the whist season was celebrated by the Owl and Nightingale clubs of Niles by an enjoyable party in Ford's hall on February 14th.

The prizes for the season's games were awarded to the lucky winners as follows:
The Owls—J. E. Jacobus, S. C. Manson, J. B. Bernard, Howard Emerson and E. C. Schlueter.

The Nightingales—Mrs. Joseph Tyson, Mrs. E. B. Thompson, Mrs. C. C. Smith, Miss Minnie Jacobus, S. C. Manson and Miss Maud Jacobus.
A most delightful evening was spent by all those who attended.

RILEY-KRAMER.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Hawthorne Riley, formerly of this city, and George W. Kramer of Sacramento, took place on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents in Sacramento.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Sileo of the Congregational Church. There were but a few friends present, and the wedding was a quiet one.

Miss Riley has many friends in this city, where she resided for a number of years. Her father was at one time connected with The Tribune.
Mr. and Mrs. Kramer will spend their honeymoon in San Francisco and Monterey.

PARTY AT STANFORD.
The Sigma Nu Fraternity of Stanford University gave one of those delightful parties which this club is justly famous for, last Tuesday evening, in the Assembly hall of that institution.

The apartments were bright with the college colors, the cardinal and white, making an effective decoration. Several pretty collation figures were dined.

The favors for one figure were heart-shaped boxes of candy, tied with streamers of the college colors, for the ladies, and all bags of "solace" for the gentlemen.
Mrs. Havens chaperoned Miss Marjette Havens and Miss Florence Havens, and the party were the guests of Paul Havens.

Mrs. Havens was beautifully gowned and Miss Havens wore a pretty dress of white mull made over pink silk.
Miss Florence Havens was gowned in Nile green silk, trimmed with pearls and lace.

A NIGHT OF PLEASURE.
The first public entertainment of the Eureka Athletic club will be given in Magnolia hall next Saturday evening. A very attractive program has been arranged, to consist of selections by a young ladies' sextet, club-swinging by Professor Kurtz of Berkeley, piano duets, recitations, selections by a male quartet, musical trio, home training exhibition, chalk sketches by D. Conroy. A social dance will follow. It was the intention to hold the entertainment at Monahan's, but the advance sale of tickets indicated such a large attendance that it became necessary to secure a larger hall.

SEVENTH WARD REPUBLICANS.
An Interesting Meeting Was Held Last Evening.

The Seventh Ward Republican Club met as scheduled last evening in Cameron Hall on Thirteenth avenue. There was an attendance of about fifty representative party followers, including a majority of the ward campaign committee, which had met earlier in the evening.

A. J. Read presided. I. I. Boak was supposed to be present with the report of the committee on the division of the by-laws. His absence prevented any action being taken in this regard.
Ben F. Woolner reported for the campaign committee that it had been decided to hold two mass meetings in the ward, one on next Wednesday evening in Washington Hall and the other on the evening of March 8th in the hall on Twenty-third avenue. Woolner urged upon all members the necessity of turning out to make these gatherings the success they should be.

W. W. Crane, of the campaign committee, announced that a circular letter to each voter was being prepared. This letter is to be distributed all over the ward urging that the entire Republican ticket be given support.

A. H. Breed, Republican nominee for Auditor, was then called upon for a few remarks. He said he would discuss the campaign issues at a later date as he had only come prepared to shake hands. It was his first appearance as a candidate in politics. He had in the last campaign been identified with it as President of a Republican Club. He said that the people expected an Auditor to be a keeper, and he explained that he had filled such a position with a stationer's firm in San Francisco. Above all he thought an Auditor should be a business man, and that he claimed to be.

B. H. Welch, nominee for Councilman-at-large, also spoke briefly. George Ingraham, J. P. Cook, Hugh Cameron, Paul Wuthe, Henry Martin and R. B. Ayer were among the other orators.

Ben Woolner made the speech of the evening.

"Early in the campaign I had a political jump on my head," said he, "and it cost me five to get rid of it. I ran up against Mr. Welch. When I found myself beaten I got in behind him and I am doing all my power to help elect him. That is what you should do, and don't neglect to support the entire ticket as well."

Mr. Woolner said he had watched the career of Arthur Breed with pleasure for years and he knew he was fitted for the position of Auditor. He also knew Mr. Welch will make a good Councilman.

The speaker declared a great effort is being made by some chronic office-seekers, in connection with disappointed Independents and Democrats, to break up the Republican party in Oakland. It would not do to be sure of defeating all their candidates. It might be possible for some of the Republicans' nominees to slip into office unless Republicans made a point of supporting their entire ticket. Sentiment must not be centered on one man or one office. All members of the club should tell their friends to attend the meetings to be held, and should bring enthusiasm with them.

E. S. Reed, President of the Young Men's Republican Club of the Seventh ward announced that a meeting of that organization would be held next Monday evening.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL AT THE PLEASANTON.

A "home" social was given at the Pleasanton, corner Fourteenth and Washington streets, last evening, in which about fifteen couples participated. Those who were fortunate enough to be present had a most enjoyable time. Dancing, music, whist and, but not the least enjoyed, was the dining room prepared by the hostess, Mrs. M. C. Robinson. The festivities lasted till about 2 A. M., and the affair was one of the most enjoyable ever given at this popular hotel. The worst prize was won by Mrs. Archer and Mr. Leonard. The music was furnished by guests of the house on the piano, cornet, mandolin and guitar.

The singing of Miss Grace McIntosh was the feature of the evening. The young lady has a superb contralto voice, which promises well for her future. She was presented with many handsome floral offerings. Altogether the event will not soon be forgotten.

The Natural Cure for Indigestion

Does your stomach distress you after eating? Do you have a yellow tongue, bad complexion, bad taste in the mouth? Do you suffer from wind on the stomach? Constipation?

These things arise from Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Digestion depends on the regular supply of digestive fluids or ferments secreted by certain glands. When the secretion becomes insufficient or irregular, indigestion follows.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cause these glands to resume their normal action and good digestion results. Artificial ferments (of which most so-called Dyspepsia cures are composed) may give temporary relief, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People afford a permanent cure. You do not have to take the pills indefinitely. Beware of imitations and substitutes. If your druggist does not sell the genuine you can obtain them from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y. Sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents per box; six boxes, $2.50. A booklet telling how to cure Constipation without medicine, sent free.

Bad Digestion, Bad Heart.

Poor digestion often causes irregularity of the heart's action. This irregularity may be mistaken for real, organic heart disease. The symptoms are usually the same. There is, however, a vast difference between the two. Organic heart disease is often incurable; apparent heart disease is curable if the cause is removed.

A case in point is quoted from the New York Herald, dated March 1st, 1898. Mrs. Ellen Cole, of Greensburg, Ind., a woman forty-three years of age, had suffered for four years with indigestion, constipation, nervousness, heart, and caused an irregularity of the heart, and was subject to frequent and severe attacks of indigestion, which were most severe at night. She was tried in vain; the patient became worse, despondent, and feared impending death.

A Case of Heart Failure.

She was much frightened but noticed that in intervals in which her stomach did not trouble her, her heart's action was normal. Reasoning correctly, that her indigestion was the cause of the trouble, she immediately began to treat that trouble and with the result that the heart's action became normal. Her weight, which had been greatly reduced, was restored. Her blood soon became purer and her cheeks rosy. Because the case is of general interest because the disease is a very common one, we give the name of the medicine used—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves.

RIPAN'S

For about two years now I have been taking Ripan's Tablets, which I claim have been the sole relief and cure of an awful headache which bothered me a great deal. I am twenty-four years of age and a stenographer. When operating the typewriter I would often have a awful headache, and I would wake up in the morning with a dull sensation and a humming as if some one was hitting me on top of the head. I had no ambition, and to find anything in the morning was a trouble. I became white looking and haggard. One day I met a friend, who asked what was the matter with me. I stated in him just how I felt. He said: "Take one of these things (Ripans Tablets) and see how they'll knock it out of you." Well, that is just what they did. I used to feel as if there was a big ball of wind or something like a hard lump in my stomach. When I took the Ripans Tablets it seemed to act at once, and in a week or two I had my appetite and could sleep, and the pain both in my head and stomach had left. I recommend Ripans Tablets to all persons suffering from cramps brought on by drinking ice water on hot days. On Sunday, July 3, I was out visiting the sick for the Old Fellows, of which I am a member, and took one of these things in my stomach, which almost doubled me up. I was on a street car, and I managed to get home the best way I could, and after taking whisky, ginger, blackberry brandy, etc., which really did me good, I thought of Ripans Tablets and took one. When it had a little time I gave me relief and I then took another in the course of half an hour, and before dinner I was out on the street again visiting the sick near home. On the 4th of July one of my brothers was taken with cramps and I wanted him to take one of the Tablets, but he did not want to take them. When the other medicines he tried failed he wanted to try them, and was in a different state in five minutes.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R.I.P.A.N.'S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 100 to 1000—R.I.P.A.N.'S, 10c for 1000. For 1000 for 1000, you may be told of all ailments which will yield to a medicine at a moderate cost. These tablets pain and relieve. One gives relief. Note the word R.I.P.A.N.'S on the packet. Accept no substitute.

"Equal Rights to All, and Special Privileges to None"

And the following platform adopted by the DEMOCRATIC CITY CONVENTION:

PLATFORM

The Democracy of the city of Oakland announces the following principles:

First - The city taxes are too high, and we will reduce them if we have the power.

Second - We consider the public schools as the bulwark of American liberty, and we intend to support and maintain them to the fullest extent.

Third - We are in favor of all kinds of public improvements, and the purchasing of a park that will meet with the approval of the people.

Fourth - We are in favor of the completion of the work on the West Oakland marshes, and the improvements of Independence Square in East Oakland.

Fifth - Considering the oppressive water rates in Oakland, we are in favor of the acquisition by the city of the water supply, and the accomplishment of this end we instruct our candidates to use every lawful means.

Sixth - Until Oakland shall secure its own water supply, we are in favor of fixing the rates justly and fairly, and at the same time are of the opinion that the present rates are too high and ought to be reduced.

Seventh - We are also in favor of the acquisition by the city of its gas and electrical works.

Eighth - In consequence of the city's litigation, many thousands of dollars have been unnecessarily expended for outside attorneys. We are opposed to this, and our nominee for City Attorney is elected, we promise for him that he will properly attend to the city's litigation without additional cost.

Ninth - We are in favor of the improvement of our streets, and think they should be put and maintained in the best condition at the least expense.

Tenth - We endorse the eight hour law recently passed in the House of Representatives.

Eleventh - We are in favor of the most rigid economy in every department of the city's government.

Whereas, The city of Oakland is now organized under a freeholders' charter which was framed at a time when its municipal affairs were subject to and controlled by general laws;

Whereas, By the amendment to the State Constitution of 1896 it is permitted to manage its municipal affairs without reference to general laws and entirely independent of them; and

Whereas, By reason of the former state of the constitution, the present charter is very defective and requires to be amended in many particulars relating to municipal affairs; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Democratic party of the city of Oakland is in favor of securing action by the City Council, to the end that proper amendments may be prepared and submitted to the people for ratification, in order that the city of Oakland may receive the full measure of benefits derived from the said amendment to the State Constitution, and thereby repudiate many general laws now applicable, which the State Constitution and the development of the city and prevent its citizens from correcting many abuses in the administration of its affairs.
